Welcoming Congregation since 1995
Green Sanctuary since 2007

Seeking the Spirit Building Our Community Changing the World

Sunday, November 2, 2008 9:00 and 11:15 a.m.

El Dia de los Muertos

Reverend Mary Ann Macklin and Reverend Bill Breeden

In honor of the Mexican festival "El Dia de los Muertos" (Day of the Dead), we will have our annual service of remembering our ancestors and honoring those who have shed the garment of mortality. You are invited to bring a picture or small memento of an ancestor, a loved one, or a beloved pet that has died; a special altar will be created during the service to celebrate those who gave us life and love. Reflections on ancestors (including one Unitarian Universalist ancestor who worked to ensure the right to vote), saints and rituals of remembrance will be offered. The choir, directed by Susan Swaney, will sing "Breaths" by Ysaye Barnwell. (Don't forget that daylight saving time; clocks fall back one hour at 2:00 a.m. November 2!)

Tuesday, November 4, 2008
Remember to Vote!

Wednesday, November 5, 2008 5:30PM Dinner, 6:15PM Worship
Family Worship: Honoring our UU Ancestors
Rev. Emily Manvel Leite

Come and honor our Unitarian and Universalist ancestors as we celebrate All Souls Day. We will share some ancestor stories and enjoy an interactive worship experience as we remember those who came before us. All ages are welcome! 5:15PM craft, 5:30PM dinner (provided, with a vegan option), 6:15PM worship. Join us when you can.

Sunday, November 9, 2008 9:00 and 11:15 a.m.
Patience—I Can't Wait to Find It
Reverend Bill Breeden

MAM's Musings

Robert Burns has that wonderful quote, "The best laid schemes o' mice an' men Gang aft a-gley, An' lea'e us nought but grief an' pain, For promis'd joy." As many of you know, my plans to attend a two-week Residential Retreat in the Arizona desert on Leadership and Spirituality went 'aft a-gley'. Seems in these difficult and confusing economic times, many of the participants decided they could not attend, so the retreat was cancelled. As I said on Sunday October 12th, I was not devastated by this news, but I was very disappointed. I have spent time honoring the feelings of my disappointment (sadness and frustration) cycling within my being as well, and I have also applied that great elixir of disappointment, gratitude, within those cycling of emotions. All a part of this 'being' human. In these autumnal days, I do have much of which to be grateful for...home, friends, family, this congregational community, the freedom to vote...and of course, the word, autumnal itself.

Meanwhile, Reverend Breeden and I look forward to sharing the "El Dia de los Muertos" worship service with everyone on Sunday November 2nd. As the autumn days of daylight become less and less, we are glad that we will have an extra hour that morning. (Remember clocks FALL BACK one hour at 2 a.m. November 2nd.) As we have said to some of you before, we consider this service to be one of our Unitarian Universalist Church of Bloomington High Holy Days. The music, provided by our choir and musicians, brings such a comforting, healing and uplifting spirit to our time together. We hope our reflections will do the same. Children are invited to attend in costume. We look forward to seeing y'all there.

Reverend Breeden and I also hope that with the time change, we will see more and more of you at the 9:00 am worship service. The 11:15 am service and parking lot are often full to running over, so with this added daylight time in the morning we encourage you to "arise" and join us for the 9:00 am service.

Lastly, we Unitarian Universalists value the democratic process as part of our principles. This country is founded upon many freedoms. Remember to vote.

With blessings, MAM
Reverend Mary Ann Macklin

Our Folks...

Our thoughts are with the family and friends of Helen D'Amico, who passed away on October 22, at home. A memorial service for Helen will be held here on Saturday, November 1 at 1:30 p.m.

Barb Lund as well as friends of the congregation Karen Green Stone and Walt Schmidt will participate in The 11th Annual Local Clay Pottery Show, Nov 7-8 at St. Mark's United Methodist Church.

Patricia Coleman, local artist, storyteller, and poet, is featured as Renaissance Woman in the fall edition of Bloomington's INto Art magazine.

Congratulations to Jody and Steven Black upon the birth of their daughter Rosalie Margaret, who arrived earlier than expected on October 3rd. Jody and Steve are in Indianapolis with Rosalie, who is at Riley Hospital. All are doing well.

Clickety Click Clickety Click Clickety Click

That's the sound of knitting needles, crochet hooks, and weavers' shuttles once again producing delightful scarves, hats, mittens, slippers, and more to sell at this year's UU Holiday Bazaar. Last year we were able to raise $1500 for Monroe County United Ministries which feeds and shelters the less fortunate in our neighborhood. So, here's your excuse to catch up on those old movies you've been wanting to watch AND help our community. Look for the box in the Commons which says McMufflers, McMittens, and McHats and pitch-in to fight hunger. ### Help Feed Our Hungry Neighbors Task Force

CROP Walk A Big Success!

A big "thank you" to those who walked the CROP Walk on October 19, a beautiful Sunday afternoon: Mary Blizzard, Veronica Lenard, Carol Marks and Harriet Pfister. We raised a total of $686.50 to help fight poverty both at home and abroad. Thank you to church members and friends who were so generous with their donations. A special thanks to Dorothy Sowell and her 5th and 6th grade Sunday School class which held its own CROP Walk and made a substantial donation to the cause. We all have made a difference in our world!

Harriet Pfister, Help Feed Our Hungry Neighbors Task Force

Public Relations and the Radio Fund Drive

It turns out that when we read the fine print of the WFIU fund drive, combining contributions is not allowed. So there will not be a UU contribution to the WFIU fund drive. You are encouraged to continue with your usual contribution plans. You are also encouraged to consider sponsoring a day of dedication to promote our Church. If you want suggestions for the text, contact Ruellen Fessenbecker 837-9550, rfessenb@indiana.edu

Chalice Circles Invites New Members

Chalice Circles, our program of small group ministry, welcomes new members. Groups of up to ten people, including a facilitator, meet once or twice a month with a focus on deep listening and sharing personal experiences. Prepared session plans are used to guide each session, with topics such as forgiveness, gratitude, or saying goodbye. Groups also do service projects for the church and community. Participants find that they get to know themselves, and often others, more deeply in these small groups. For more information please contact Anne Haynes at 336-3221 or Judy Bennett at 331-4181 or judybennett2@gmail.com.

We're Dreaming of a GREEN Christmas!

Do you like simple crafting? Living lightly on our earth? Having fun with children? Please help make our annual Gift Making Workshop happen. ## Using Hearing Assist Radios During the Service? – You Can Also Bring Your Own!

The church provides small radios with headphones for those who need audio enhancement during Sunday (and other) services. Through heavy use, the headphones become non-functional from time to time. Anyone is welcome to bring headphones from home to use with the church's hearing assist radios, if that would be more comfortable and expeditious.

If you use the hearing assist radios regularly, you may also wish to bring your own radio/earphone combination from home. Just tune to 88.1 FM for the Sunday service.

The church administrative staff will purchase replacement radios for use at church as the old ones wear out. Please notify Carol Marks or Shara Ferrantelli right away, in the church office on Sunday or at admin@uubloomington.org or 332-3695, if the radio you are using needs to be replaced.

All-Congregational Potluck Friday, Nov. 7

Bring a dish to share and your own non-disposable place settings. Beverages provided. Childcare provided after supper.

Bazaar Frequently Asked Questions

What is the bazaar?

A major church fundraiser. A lively community social event. A great chance to get more involved in the church and meet people. A tradition begun in 1959 when the women of the church needed funds to send the Rev. Paul Killinger to a conference, so, yes, this year is our 50th consecutive bazaar!

Why is it called an arts fair?

Because it includes a juried show featuring 31 of Bloomington's leading artists in pottery, glass, fiber arts, photos, dried floral arrangements.

But isn't all that art super expensive?

No. Although many items are costly, one-of-a-kind treasures, almost all of the artisans offer gorgeous items for less than $20.

How big is the bazaar?

The bazaar covers the first floor of the church. Artisans fill the Meeting Room and Commons. Fellowship Hall holds congregation-sponsored booths and café. Rooms normally used for child care overflow with books and the unexpected treasures of the White Elephant's Trunk. Our well-known bazaar attracts many from throughout the Bloomington community and beyond.

What will I find at the bazaar besides quality art?

Gently used treasures in the White Elephant's trunk, homemade baked goods, cookies, used books, hand-knits, affordable gifts, yummy lunch and supper, and more

What is the Gourmet Galaxy?

A booth in Fellowship Hall selling wonderful home-made breads, pies, candies, jam contributed by the congregation. Donate your own signature specialties then purchase treats made by friends. (Every year Margaret Strong contributes FIVE DOZEN loaves of her famous whole wheat bread—quickly snapped up by those who know a good thing.)

How does the Cookie Walk work?

Imagine 28 linear feet of freshly baked cookies of every variety, yours to select and purchase by the pound. The only tough thing is deciding.

Can I eat at the bazaar?

Lunch and supper are served at the congregation-staffed café in Fellowship Hall. Lunch features sandwiches, superb soup, masterful chili, and homemade pies. On Friday night bring the whole family to enjoy a delicious and nutritious supper with UU friends.

How can I help?

Sign up on the big poster in Fellowship Hall to work before, during and after the bazaar. Most shifts last two hours. There are all kinds of jobs, but we especially need folks to help in the café (take and fill orders, peel potatoes, scrub pots, make change) and to help with set-up and teardown.

May I work more than one shift?

Absolutely!

Is there child care for bazaar volunteers?

Unfortunately, no.

Bazaar Insert October 27, 2008 Side A

When is the bazaar open?

Friday, December 5, 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Saturday, December 6, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

What if I am not a member?

Friends and newcomers are especially welcome to participate in all aspects of the bazaar: bake cookies, bring in your best bread, move chairs, assemble sandwiches, wash dishes. Working at the bazaar is a good way to meet people and help the church.

What does the church do with the money?

Our current operating budget depends on $9,000 from the Bazaar.

Thanksgiving Pies by Ruellen to Benefit the Bazaar

Due to a bountiful berry harvest this year, I am able to offer mixed berry pies or apple pies in time for Thanksgiving. Proceeds will go to the Bazaar. Pies will cost $12 each and are available to the first 10 callers (or e-mailers). I can supply them frozen and ready-to-bake early in November, or baked on Wednesday Nov 26. Call Ruellen Fessenbecker 837-9550 or rfessenb@indiana.edu

Cookie Walk: Bake 'em Heavy, Now

It's time to schedule your baking blitz for this year's Cookie Walk into your daily planner. We need lots and lots of homemade cookies to sell—decorated cookies, plain cookies, bar cookies, drop cookies—the heavier, the better. Bake alone, bake with a friend, bake in the morning, bake at night—just bake, bake, bake! And, if you can't bake, sign up to help sell cookies or stop over to buy some yourself! Look for signup sheets in Fellowship Hall in November.

--Your friendly Cookie Walk Committee (Peggy Schulz Bever, Karla Kunoff, Jane McLeod)

Gourmet Galaxy Needs Your Baking

The bazaar is coming up fast so it's time again to look up your favorite recipes and get ready to donate your specialty to the Gourmet Galaxy. Homemade candies such as rum balls, peanut brittle, fudge and divinity are sure hits. Jams, chutneys and relishes sell well as do cakes, all kinds of breads, and other baked goods. Donations should be wrapped and labeled. We will do the pricing. Start baking and freezing to get ahead. Let's make this the best year yet!

Persimmons Available November 9 to Benefit the Bazaar

If the frost is on the pumpkin, there must be persimmons... Once again this year, Lee and Al Strickholm have prepared persimmon pulp to sell for the benefit of the Holiday Bazaar. Beginning November 9th, they will have packs of frozen pulp ready for purchase each Sunday between services in Fellowship Hall for $5.00/pint. Stop by and buy some!
