

Classes Start Sunday, September 10th!
We are excited to have over 100 kids registered for Religious Education. We have a wonderful group of volunteer teachers who are eager to share stories, play games, and encourage wondering. If you have not registered your child or youth for RE yet, please click here to register them before you arrive.

Our Whole Lives Sexual Education

*Mandatory Meeting for 1st & 2nd grade parents on Sunday, September 10th from 12:30-1:30pm in Library. OWL for 1st & 2nd grade begins on Sept. 14th!

Childcare is available, please contact Kitty McIntosh to reserve your space in childcare rea@uubloomington.org

OWL for 4th & 5th grade will be offered on Sundays from 1-2:30pm from January 7-February 25th, 2018.*

Autumnal Equinox

Wednesday, September 20th -6:15pm

Join Reverend Emily Manvel Leite and the Children's Choir for an intergenerational celebration of the autumnal equinox.

Childcare is not offered.

How to talk to kids in 1st –12th grade about race

*2 day workshop lead by IU professor Nya McCarthy-Brown, will share resources and guide participants through challenging dialogues to help parents, adults and educators develop & refine strategies to talk to children about race and racism in our lives.

*Thursdays September 21st & September 28th from 6-8pm in Fellowship Hall

*children will be invited to join the discussion from 7-8pm on Sept 28th

Childcare is available, please contact Kitty McIntosh to reserve your space in childcare rea@uubloomington.org